Mr. Burton Coffman
Manhattan Church of Christ
48 E. 80th Street
New York 21, New York

Dear Brother Coffman:

My wife and I appreciated your taking the time to stop and visit with us on your recent trip through Tennessee. We would like to express our regrets that our evening was already planned for it would have been a genuine pleasure to have entertained you in our home.

The work in Manhattan presents the greatest challenge for the Church in the twentieth century. It is my sincere prayer and hope that this challenge will be met. Knowing your concern for the work there, your profound ability, I feel that success is assured.

Manhattan plans may not at this time include me and my family, however, I do hope that in the coming years, as I continue to prepare myself, that opportunities will arise for me to work with the group there.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
